FHS-TV presents

Fall, 1953, brought television to this area. TV aerials sprang up en masse to dot the horizon. And as the new baby grew, Fort Hays State grew likewise.

Through its FHS-TV camera lens, the 1954 Reveille staff has telecast a year of varied and exciting events.

Herein is transcribed for future onlookers, as completely as possible, the saga of another FHS year--its work, its play, its progress.

Technical difficulties, as always, have created a little snow, but we believe the true picture of Fort Hays State remains clearly visible on the 1954 Reveille screen.

RARICK HALL, more commonly known as the old Industrial Arts building, shows signs of coming to life this year under its new name. Now being remodelled, the building is slated to house the departments of psychology and education in 1954.

WE RESPECTFULLY DEDICATE THIS, THE 1954 REVEILLE

Unassuming, unpretentious, Madame Bogart has endeared herself to the students she has contacted as teacher of English, French, and Latin. Tucked into an obscure corner office of Picken Hall, she counsels, advises, and instructs countless students who seek her out.

Returning in 1952 from a year as exchange teacher in Great Britain, she brought back a new understanding of European cultures which flavors her classes and conversations. Mrs. Bogart, during seven years here, has through her diligence, thoroughness, and congeniality won the admiration and respect of all Fort Hays State.

SPOTLIGHTS OF '54

The 1954 Reveille spotlights fall on campus highlights of the year.

PAPA PAID THE BILL for freshman Patty Christensen before leaving for his home in Great Falls, Montana.

The campus came to life as more than 1200 students moved in for the coming term.

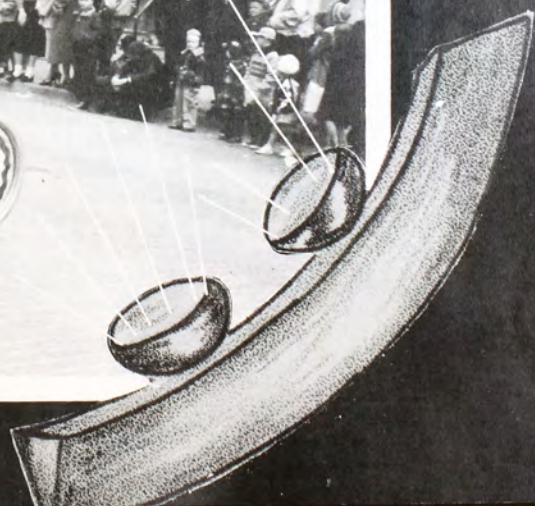

THEY CAME BEFORE. . . Coach Red Huffman and his gridiron squad took over the Custer dining room before the crowd of coeds arrived.

ELECTION CAMPAIGNS inspired an original approach by Joyce Welch and Kate Stewart.

The first signs of fall brought preparations for Homecoming and all the traditional activities that go with it.

AND THE PARADE was lots of fun for bicyclers Aaron Feist, Wilfred Schrepel, and Merrill Frydendall.

'SPOTLIGHTS'

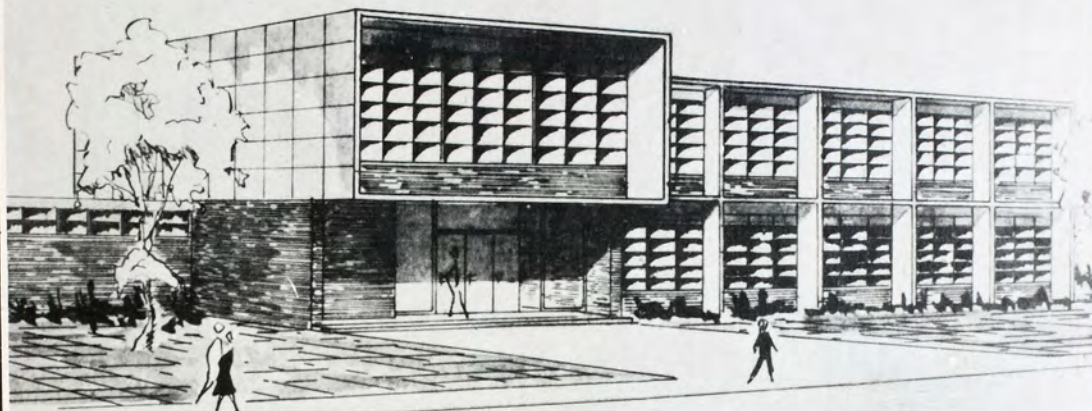

CHARMING GRETA STRECKER entertained as emcee on the Reveille ball floor-show.

In no time at all campus activities were getting into full swing.

VIDEO VAUDEVILLE, a talent show presented by the choir, featured the music of the quartet-- Bill Latchford, Fritz Kramer, Jim Maxwell, and Derryl Goes.

AS THE NEW SEMESTER ROLLED AROUND, plans for the new student union building became the main topic of social building conversations. An extensive campaign was begun to raise funds for making the dream a reality.

GAS STATE COLLEGE STUDENT UNION

FROI

THE STUDENT NURSES,
Fort Hays State's first class in the new program, terminated their two-year study on campus and left for special training in Chicago and Topeka.

THE ALL-SCHOOL CARNIVAL was a big success, in spite of blizzards. At least Delta Sigs, "Gus" Gustavson and Phil Erickson, seemed to enjoy their own fraternity's pie-throwing booth.

'SPOTLIGHTS'

SWEETHEARTS Jo Ann Siruta and Alan Feist reigned at the Sweetheart Ball, much to their mutual enjoyment.

AND LEAP WEEK brought out the chivalrous instincts of the fairer sex, even if they did have to be encouraged by fines. (That's Doris Miller opening the door for Arlin Morgan.)

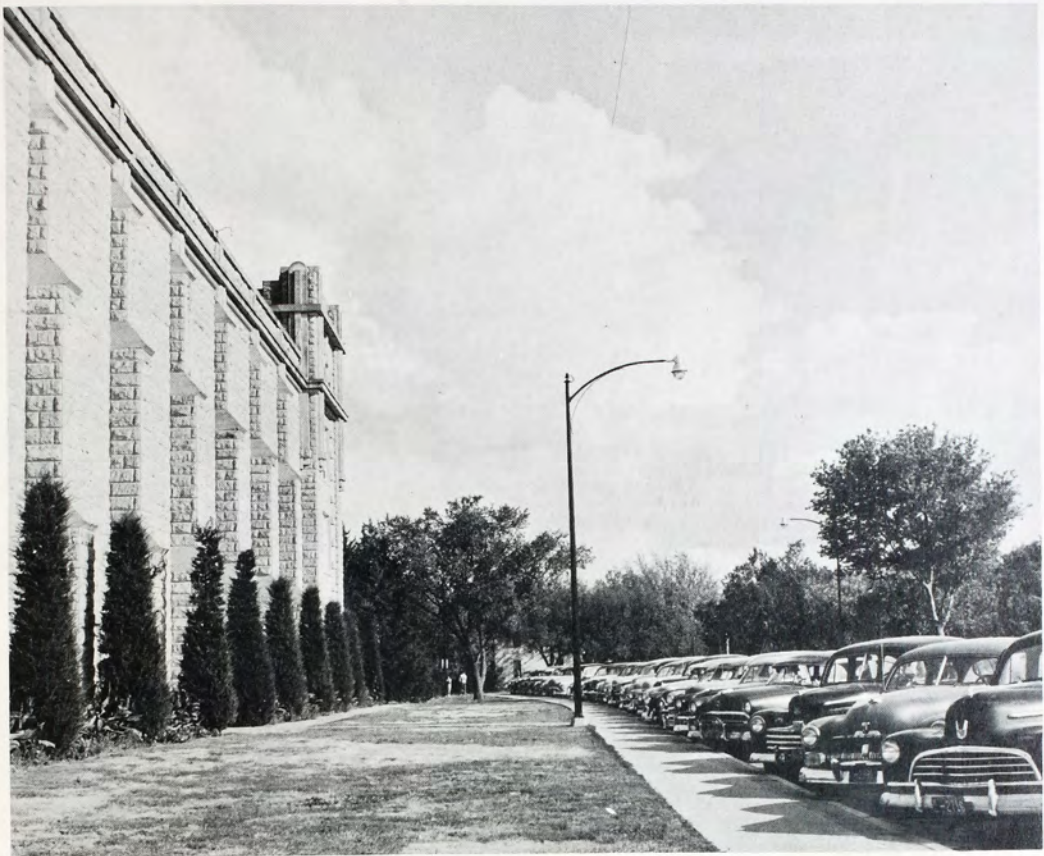

'SPOTLIGHTS'

A BIGGER AND BET-TER Follies show featured such acts as the Kappa Sig barbershop quartet and the Alpha Sig clown dance.

SPRING brought with it a temporary parking shortage, as extensive work was begun on new paved parking areas around the campus.

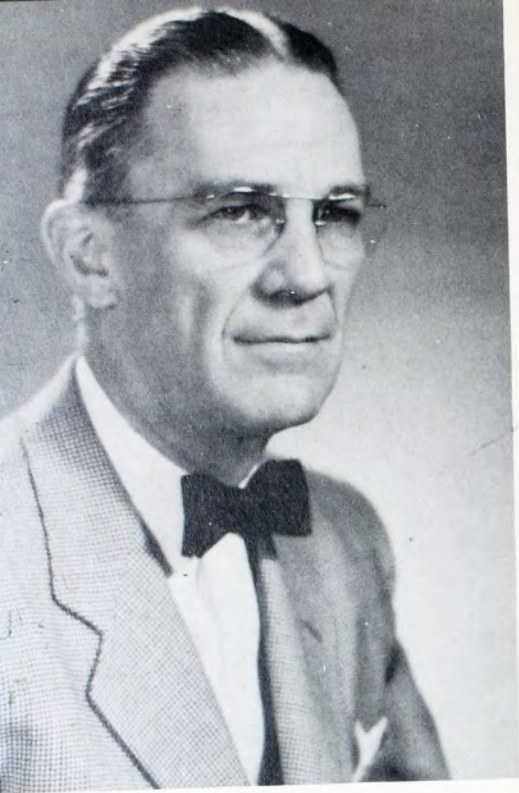

INTERVIEWS IN THE PLACEMENT BUREAU were a popular pastime with seniors as graduation time grew near. Here, Al and Loraine Ohnmacht confer with Miss Artman about possible teaching positions.

STUDENT COUNCIL

DON RORABAUGH
Council President

The Student Council is the representative governmental body of the students. Its chief duties are management of student affairs and settlement of student problems at Fort Hays State.

The council is composed of the three officers from each class and the three student body officers.

Student body officers are chosen in a general election to act as liaison between the student body and the student council.

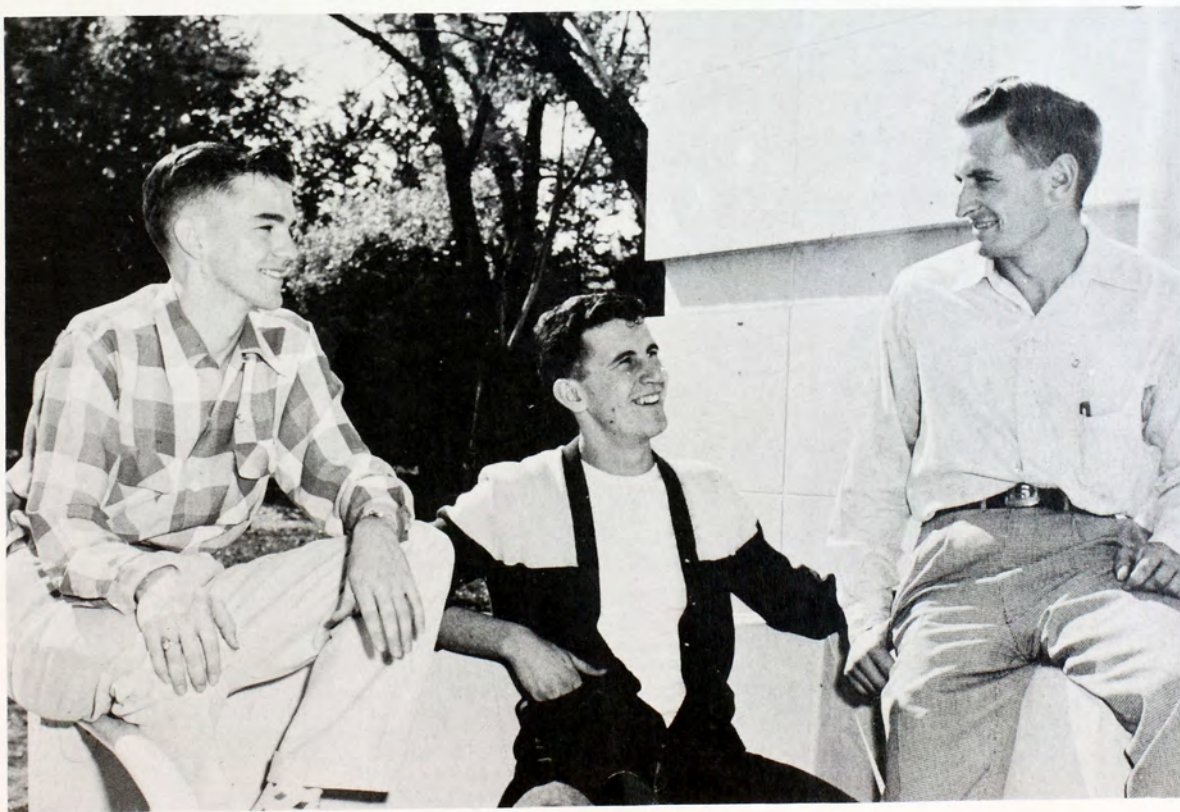

Paul Blomquist, senior from Winthrop, Massachusetts, serving as president this year, has presided over all meetings concerning matters of importance to the whole student body. In addition, his ability to ad lib has kept him in popular demand as a master of ceremonies for campus programs.

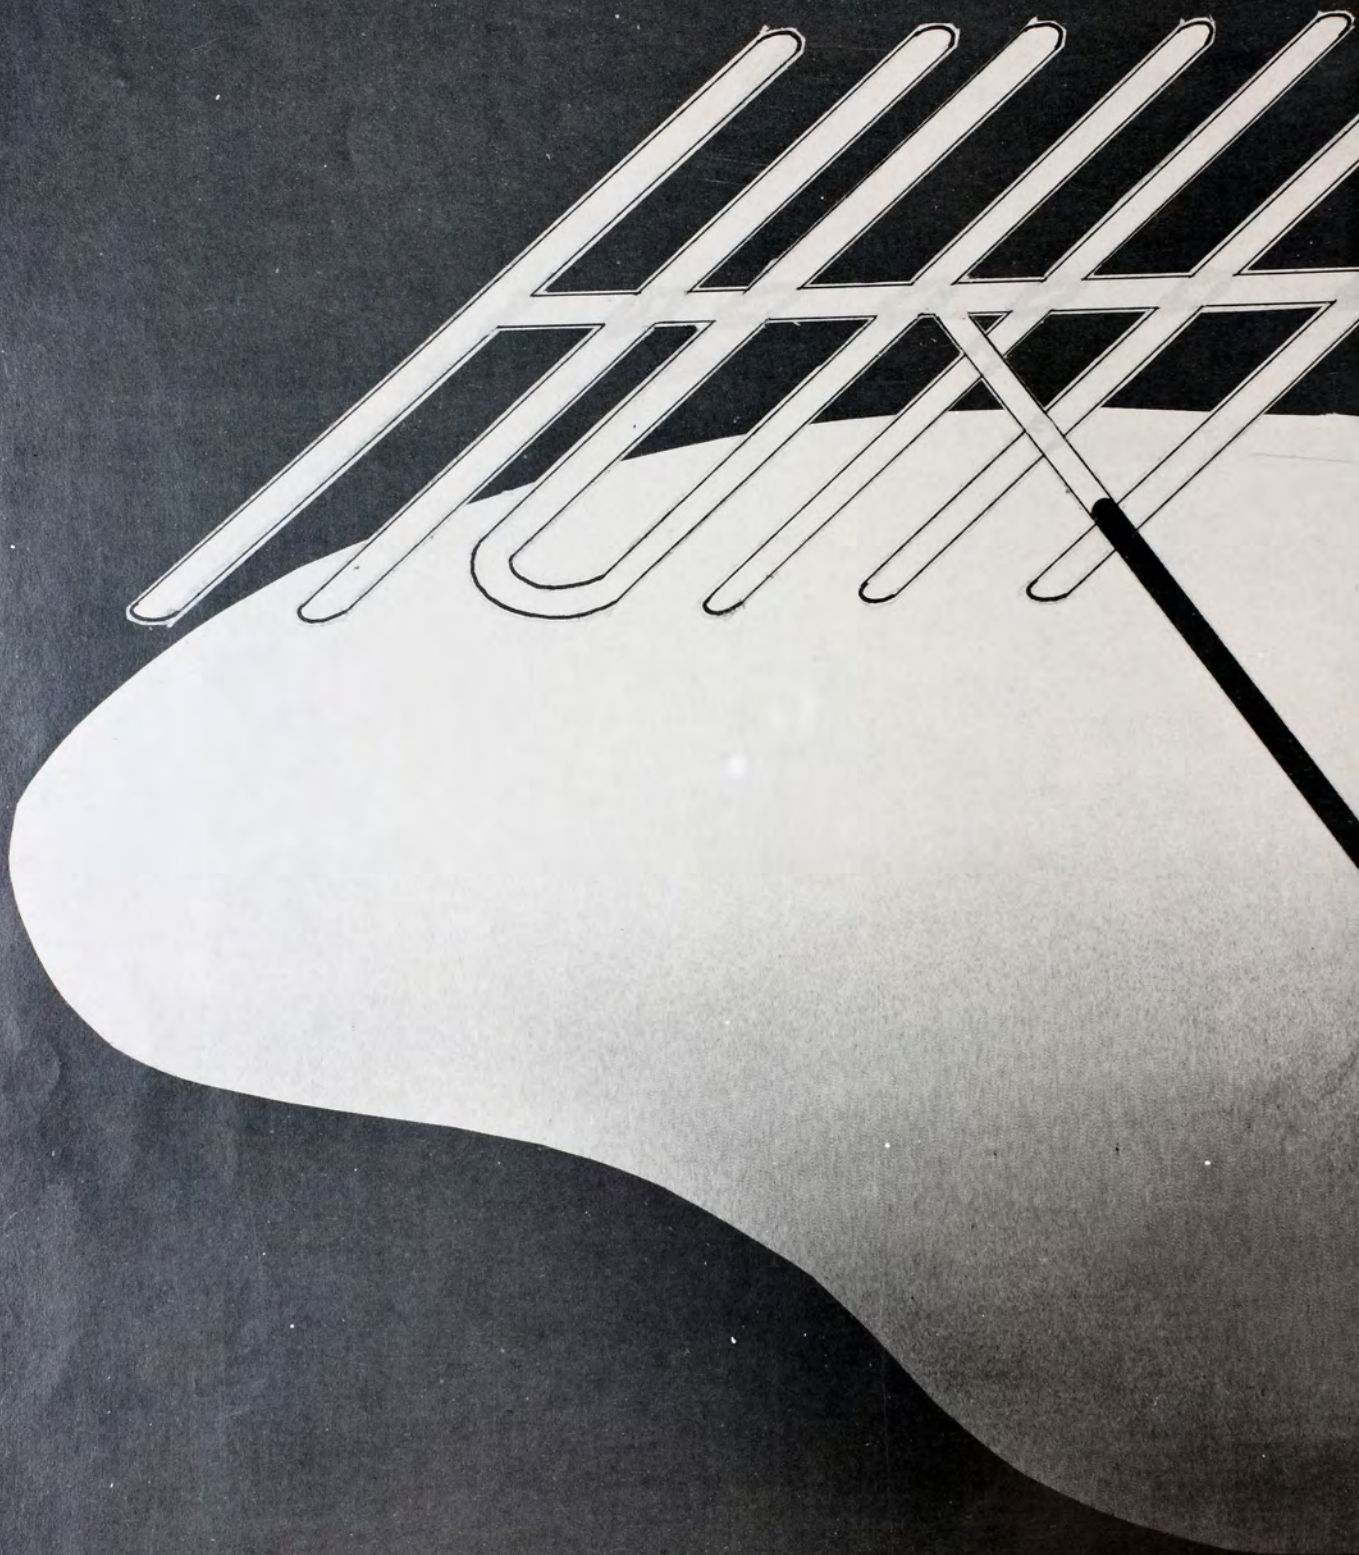

Bernard Riedl, junior from Scott City, as student body vice-president, and Richard Diamond, senior from Mankato, as secretary-treasurer, assisted in student government activities.

QUEEN OF HOMECOMING

Homecoming, 1953, was a memorable occasion. Joan Pennington, Oakley senior, was crowned queen at the Picken Revue varsity show Friday night. The show, featuring student acts, unearthed the hidden talents of several Fort Hays Staters.

"Three Blind Mice" -- Mary Jo Wiesner, Jo Gwinner, and Mary Jo Gibson -- cut up some antics in the Picken Revue.

HOME COMING, 1953

On Tug-of-War day an icy dip was the vogue for the freshman boys as they succumbed to the superior strength of the sophomores.

Because of their defeat, the frosh continued to forego chastising from upperclassmen. Leaving the S.B., Marilyn Mosier, Barbara Werth, and Marcia Stagg laughingly escape the clutches of a "man-eating tiger." Barbara, however, not so fortunate in escaping the clutches of irate upperclassmen, wears the familiar make-up job of a freshman who "forgot" her beanie.

Decorations were the order of the day. While the organizations vied for honors in house decorations, the freshmen went all-out to decorate the campus. In front of every building the Tigers were beating, capturing, eating, sudsing, or slaying hornets, and from each lightpost a fiery-eyed Tiger head gleamed.

Led by Fort Hays State's snappy marching band, Saturday's parade included floats, colds, convertibles, and high school bands. Many hours and ingenuity were evident in the clever and elaborate floats which rolled down main street.

As the parade passed, the crowd migrated to Lewis Field to witness the Tigers' tough but losing battle against Emporia State.

Then came the open houses, teas, and reunions, and finally, 1953 Homecoming ended to the strains of music by the Collegians, Fort Hays State's all-star band of alumni.

The college band, under the direction of Phil Martin, steps out to lead the parade.

Men's pep club members sneak into the parade with jalopies.

Julie Smerchek, on the Collegiate 4-H float, is "making it hot for the hornets."

The YM-YW float carries out a three-fold theme.

The Tiger gridiron team moved up two places in CIC rank this fall, coming from a 1952 fifth place tie with Southwestern to a third place tie with Pittsburg.

Highlight of the season was Fort Hays State's upsetting 7-6 victory over undefeated Washburn. With the surprising win at Topeka the Tigers pulled themselves into a tie with Pittsburg State and at the same time dragged the title-bound Washburnites into a crown split with St. Benedict's.

Coach Huffman's crew started the season against a new foe, Omaha University, and outplayed the Indians at Omaha in every department except the all-important scoring column, consequently dropping a 12-20 decision. Opening league play in grand style the next week, the Tigers romped to a 33-6 win over Southwestern, only to be slowed down later by a tie with Pittsburg and defeats from St. Benedict's and Emporia State.

Bad weather forced cancellation of the Colorado College game, depriving local fans of the fourth and last home game.

The Tigers ended the season in style with a runaway 39-0 victory over Kansas Wesleyan at Salina, a fitting climax to the grid careers of seniors Kayo McGillivray, Norman Stoppel, Pete Koerner, and Rocky Rorabaugh.

All-CIC Guard

Don "Rocky" Rorabaugh, diminutive but scrappy Fort Hays guard, was one of three C.I.C. men to win all-star first team honors for the second consecutive year.

The twenty year old senior from Smith Center winds up his football career this year as Fort Hays State's only four year letterman. He began as a freshman on the starting defensive lineup.

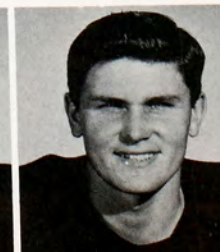

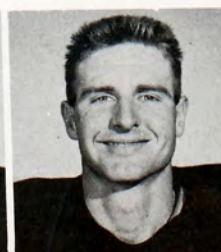

In addition to football Rocky is actively engaged in campus activities. A pre-med student, he is also president of the student council and K-Club and vice-president of the 7th Cavalry.

The three-year letterman missed the first team by only one vote in spite of being laid up with a leg injury most of the season. A broken leg kept him out of action during his junior year.

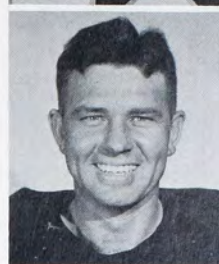

Charles Stahl, known to his team-mates as "Big Charlie," also won a C.I.C. second team spot.

A junior tackle from Plainville, he is a three-year letterman and a K-Club member.

BASKETBALL

1954

Coach Cade Suran proudly displays the first place trophy which was awarded the Tigers after successfully taking the pre-season tournament at Hutchinson.

Fort Hays State started the season strong, leading the CIC race before hitting a disastrous slump in mid-season from which it never recovered.

It was predicted the Tigers would be tough when they won the pre-season tourney held in Hutchinson during the Christmas holidays. However, they completed play with a conference record of 3 wins against 7 losses and a season record of 11 and 10.

All CIC Marvin Andrews hit a total of 357 points to break the school single-season scoring mark set last year, and to share conference top-scoring honors with Ray Potter of Southwestern.

Cheerleaders Barbara Bohannon, Jo Ann Siruta, Richard Diamond, LaFaun Foreman, and Dotsie Tokushige lead the cheering section.

Reveille deadlines prevent us from reviewing the Tiger's 1954 season, but no harm will be found in mentioning the personal and team honors of the 1953 squad. Above is pictured the 1953 team, runners-up in the CIC. On the opposite page are pictured Tigers who won individual honors in the 1953 NAIA meet at Abilene, Texas.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

At left, Alan Feist, Ellinwood junior, stands as an example of a Tiger champ. Alan boasts the CIC, Missouri Valley AAU, and NAIA championships in the two-mile. Feist also holds the school record for the two-mile at 9:35.

At right is Jim Montgomery, Ellsworth, who holds the school record for the pole-vault. Jim set his record, 13'3", as he conquered all CIC contenders. From the CIC championship, Jim went to Abilene, Texas and tied for the NAIA championship in the pole-vault at 13'6".

GOLF

Due to Reveille deadlines, we cannot present the golf and tennis teams and their achievements for this year. However, we feel that special mention should go to Dale Howell, pictured at right. Howell took the state championship, playing for his high-school team, three years consecutively. Last year Howell, as a freshman, distinguished himself among his team members by winning first place in the District Ten NAIA tournament. He represented this district at the national meet at Abilene, Texas.

INTRAMURALS

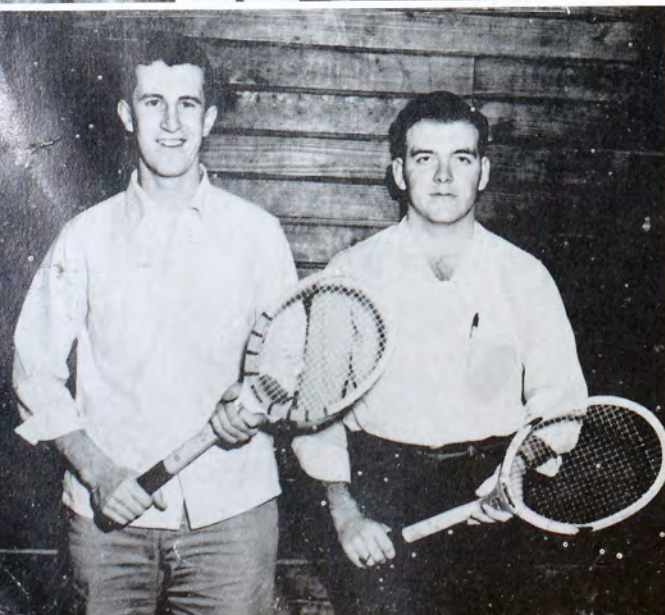

MEN'S INTRAMURALS

The Intramural Council is the governing body for men's intramurals. Council members are, left to right: Alex Francis, intramural director; Alan Feist, Merle Carey, Harold Cooper, David Riegel, and Carol O'Hair. Theirs is the job of judging, presenting, and listing the events and winners of FHS men's intramurals. Points are given in proportion to the placing of the teams entered in different events. At the end of the intramural year, points are totaled and the organization with the highest number receives a trophy.

WOMEN'S INTRAMURALS

Organizations compete for two trophies, awarded on the basis of percentage of participation and good sportsmanship. Since the awards are made in the spring, too late for Reveille deadlines, only the winners of the various events will be shown. Below are the Collegiate Uptowners, left, and the Tri Sigs, who tied for first place honors in soccer.

Bonnie Streck, Intramural Council President, walked away with the fall semester singles and doubles championships. Pictured here as golf champion, she also won table tennis and tennis singles.

Below, she and Barbara Bohannon, representing Theta Sigma Upsilon, teamed up to win first in table tennis doubles.

SPRING INTRAMURALS

The Spring semester season for women's intramurals opened with basketball and badminton. Following these tournaments were softball and shuffleboard.

In team sport competition, each organization supported as many teams as possible in order to raise percentage of participating members in the group. The team with highest participation rating for the year receives a trophy.

Because of early copy deadlines, this Reveille edition will be unable to cover the remainder of the season.

COLLEGIATE UPTOWNERS

ALPHA ARCHANGELS

The Collegiate Uptowners defeated the Alphas for intramural basketball championship. Members are (standing) Phyllis Needels, Donita Moore, Jean Arnold, Hazel McCue, and (seated) Norma Leiker. Helen McPherson, Charlotte Boxberger and Jean Hiebert.

League winners, the Alpha Archangels, are (standing) Julie Smerchek, Von Slingerland, Bette Hoffman, Nan Larmer, and (seated) Jan Mountain, Helen Libhart, Dorothy Nuckolls, and Kate Stewart.

The Thetaettes, one of three Theta-supported teams, provided rough competition in league play. Standing are Pat Shearer, Polly Palmer, Shirley Schmitt, and Bonnie Streck. Seated are Carol Ballard, Marcia Osborne, and Shirley Stapp.

Winners of the badminton singles were Bonnie Streck (Theta) and Von Slingerland (Alpha). Bonnie also won the badminton singles championship.

THE THAETTES

DUCK CLUB

Organized during the Spring semester by WRA, the Duck Club came to life through the efforts of its chairman, Kay Reed.

The "ducks" are those advanced swimmers who are interested in synchronized swimming, diving, and water ballet.

Members of the club are Twila Bender, Diane Draper, Lila Blankenburg, Von Slingerland, Joan Newman, Lenora Meisenheimer, Dotsie Tokushige, Norma Hayes, Carol Kimball, and Rae Ravell.

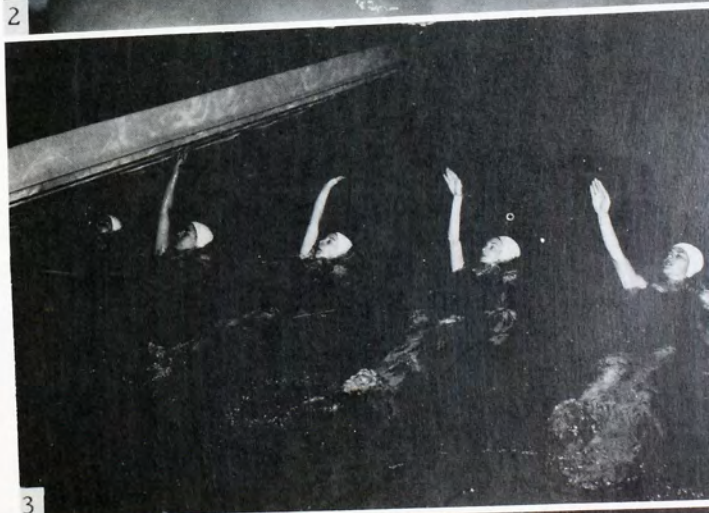

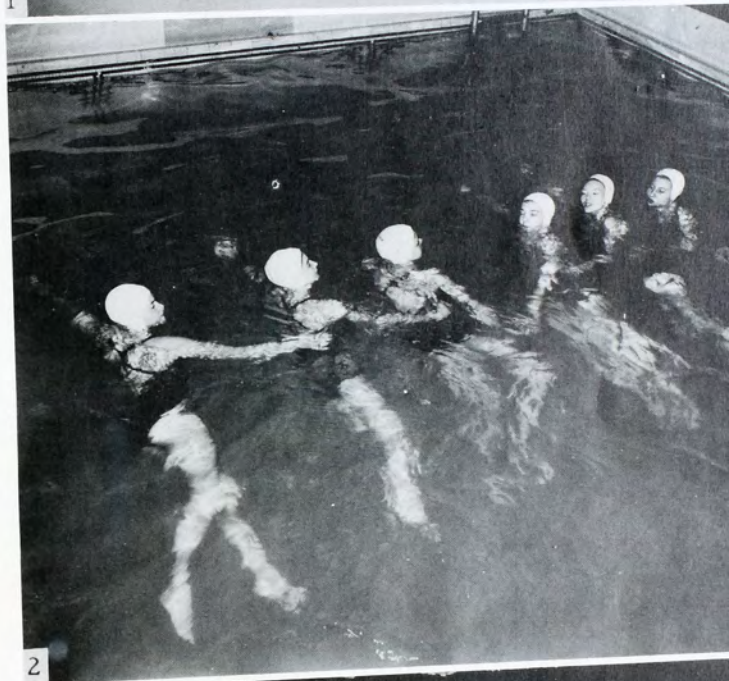

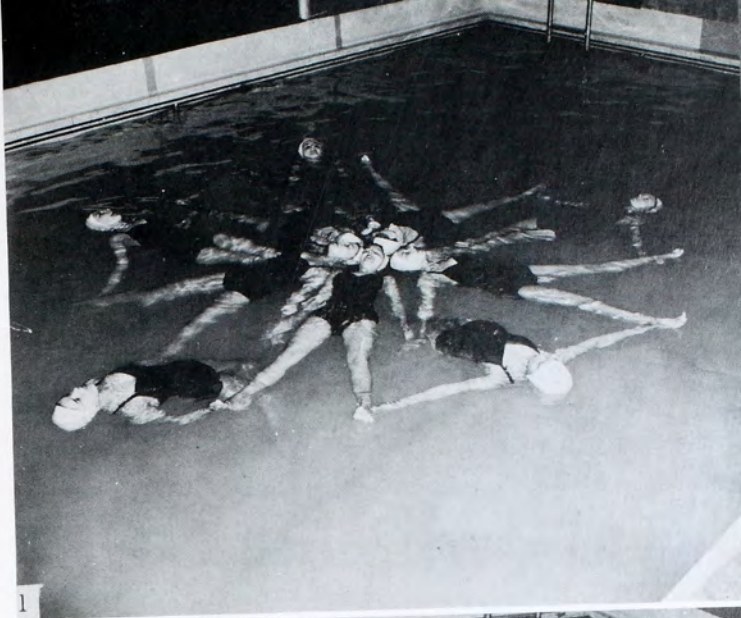

1. The ducks float in wheel formation, water-ballet style.

2. Synchronizing their side strokes, six of the gals ripple across the pool.

3. Still synchronized, Kay, Diane, Lenora, Von, and Lila try a fancy back stroke.

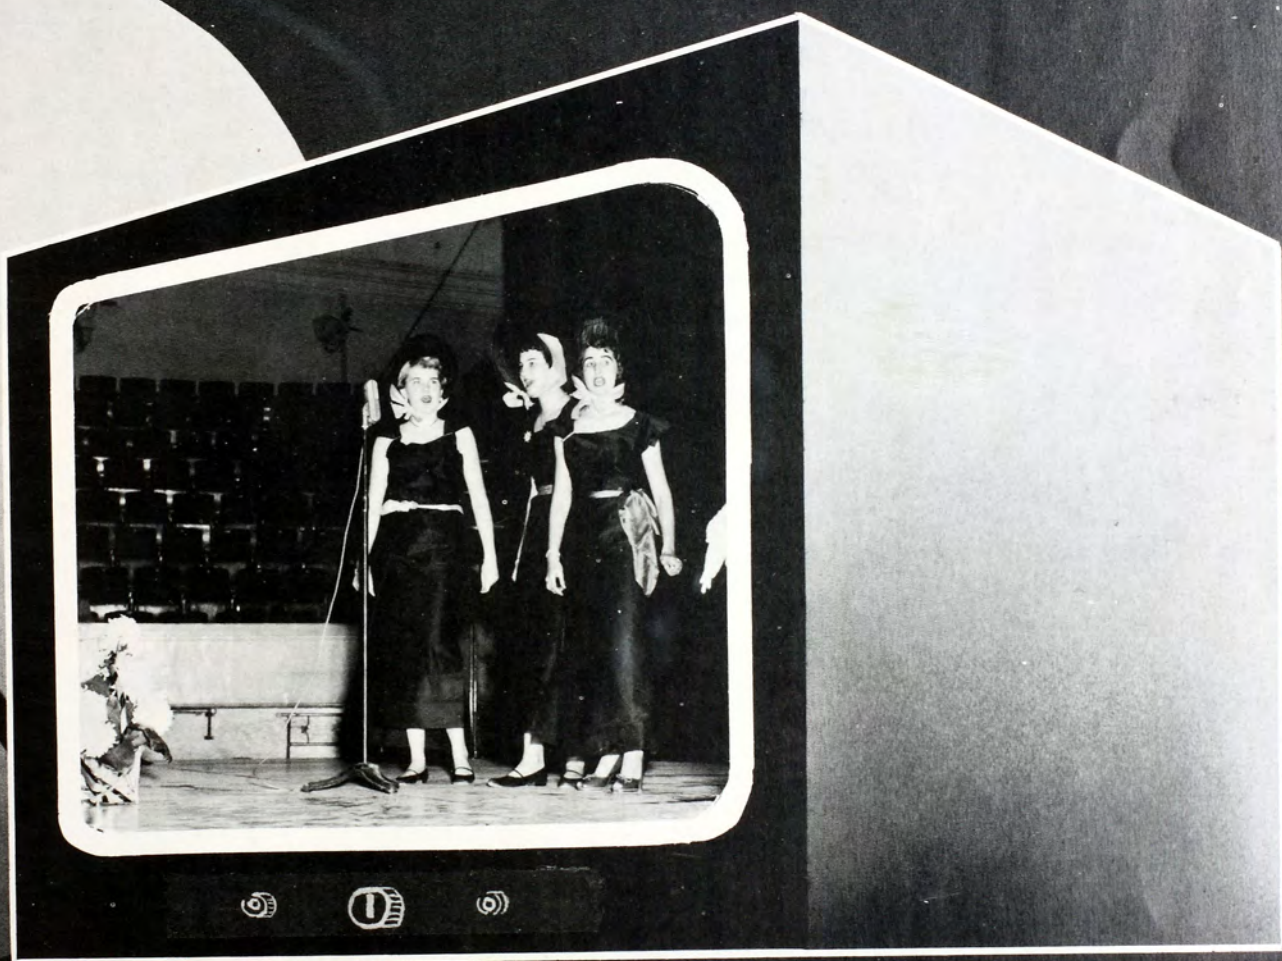

4. Von and Lenora take time out for a little fun.

5. Von, Diane, and Kay test their back stroke speed.

ACTIVITIES

Karl Knitig, Donna Garrett, Bill Samples, Jackie Phillips, and Mary Jean Thomas watch over Karl Keller, who played the brilliant young student Morgan Evans, as he prepares to take a university scholarship examination.

To open this year's stage season, the Fort Hays State drama department chose the play "The Corn Is Green." Harriet Ketchum, drama director, came back to the Fort Hays State stage after a two year absence for graduate study to fill the role of director.

Assistant directors were Nadya Clark and Winnie Fellers. Stage manager was Paul Hott.

THE CORN IS GREEN

Donna Garrett played the fluttery and co-quettish Miss Ronberry.

Karl Keller (Morgan Evans) embraces Pat Lynd (the no-good Bessie Watty) in a passionate love scene. Bessie who was infatuated by Morgan, nearly succeeded in ruining the brilliant career which awaited him.

Mary Jean Thomas portrayed Mrs. Watty, Bessie's mother, the London street thief who "got religion."

For her second production of the year, Director Harriet Ketchum selected "Martine" a play which vividly portrays the clash between French aristocracy and French peasantry.

Student directors for the production were Mary Jean Thomas and Greta Strecker. Stage manager was Mary Thompson.

Members of the cast were Carol Lynn Johnson, Barbara Werth, Colene Young, Thomas Depperschmidt, and Wendell Wyatt.

The eternal triangle, the theme of the play "Martine", is formed by Thomas Depperschmidt as the aristocrat Julien, Barbara Werth as Jeanne, and Carol Lynn Johnson as the unfortunate peasant girl Martine.

MARTINE

Colene Young as Madame Mervan Consoles Martine as Jeanne wins Julien's love from her.

Wendell Wyatt as Alfred, a peasant lad in love with Martine, encounters her on a road talking to Julien who has just returned from the war to live in their small village.

Alfred roughly and passionately declares his love for frightened Martine, who at first rejects him.

Kate Hardcastle, played by Donna Garrett, and Marlow, enacted by Karl Knitig, are the chief lovers in the play. Here Marlow and Kate formally greet each other.

For the first spring production, Director Harriet Ketchum selected the Oliver Goldsmith comedy, "She Stoops To Conquer." The play was done in stylized acting and was presented in the round.

Members of the cast not pictured are Ronald Karst, Dennis Simmonds, and Clell Harrison as servants; Paul Hott as Mr. Hardcastle; Eugene Mullen as the landlord; Mary Jo Wiesner as the maid; and Wendell Wyatt as Sir Charles Marlow.

SHE STOOPS TO CONQUER

Constance Neville, (Marilyn Miller) and Hastings (Bill Brown) were also lovers.

The role of the doting mother, Mrs. Hardcastle, was played by Mary Jean Thomas. Mrs. Hardcastle almost succeeded in breaking up the love affair of Constance and Hastings.

Mrs. Hardcastle bullies her son, Tony, (Bill Samples). She wished that Tony and Constance would wed.

Fifteen acts were included in the 1954 Follies production.

1. Thetas Polly Palmer, Pat Christensen, and Phyllis Lagerburg gave the musical welcome and farewell.
2. Freshman Men's quartet made its first appearance.
3. Delta Sigma Epsilon chorus line danced to "Lazy Day."
4. The Alpha Sig Band furnished background for their "Circus Playday."
5. Alpha Psi "Ladies of the Mop" were Mary Jean Thomas, Margaret Walker, Garnet Wilson and Lee Fox.
6. The Delta Sigma Phi "Tin Can" burlesque stole the show. Shapely soloist in the foreground is Clell Harrison.
7. The Tigerettes' skit, "Cow Does," included an old-fashioned hoedown.
8. Leo Frazier represented Phi Sigma Epsilon with a one-man minstrel show.
9. Norma Leiker and Jean Arnold honored St. Patrick with an Irish jig.
10. Custer Hall girls did a dance routine with fancy lighting.
11. The Dames club did a take-off on a popular classic.
12. The TKE dead-beat band performed talent show style.

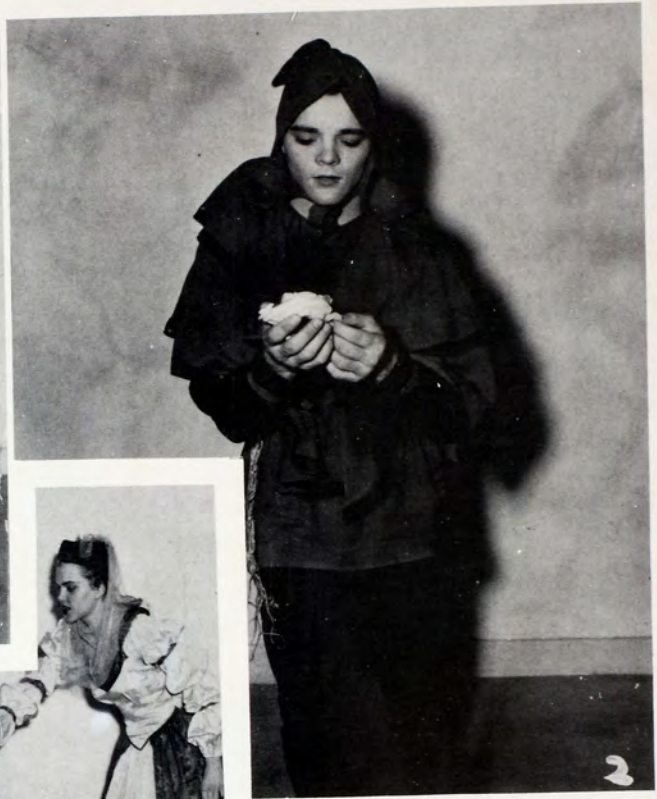

The second annual Fort Hays Follies show netted money for a total of seven scholarships from an audience of over 800 people. Campus organizations presented acts running the gamut from male can-can dancing to nearly professional singing. Co-chairmen and directors for the 1954 Follies were Greta Strecker and Bill Samples.

FORT HAYS FOLLIES

BIRTHDAY OF THE INFANTA

This one-act play is an adaptation of a short story by Oscar Wilde. The plot is concerned with the tragic effects of ridicule.

Charles Evans (not pictured) played the role of the Steward.

1. The Infanta (Louree Pinkston) laughs at the Fantastic (Dick Honn) who is a hunchback. 2. The Fantastic clutches a rose given him by the Infanta. 3. The Duchess (Jo Gwinner) and the Infanta look at the dead Fantastic.

DEBATE

Right: Classroom scenes in debate. Ross Summers and Mary Thompson present their views to their classmates.

RADIO

Radio activities at Fort Hays State are rapidly expanding. Interest in the field is steadily increasing. The students in the department present a daily program over radio station KAYS which gives them the valuable opportunity to do actual radio work.

Tad Felts operates the radio console and is observed by other students in the department. Left to right: Sylvia Moritz, Joyce Geiman, Dale Kellerman, and Greta Strecker.

In a class session Jack Heather gives some pointers concerning the microphone to Joyce Geiman, Greta Strecker, Dale Kellerman, and Sylvia Moritz.

ORCHESTRA

Conductor

STANLEY D. BALLINGER

The Fort Hays Symphony Orchestra is comprised of musicians from Hays and the surrounding communities, as well as Fort Hays Staters. The 42-piece orchestra, playing under the direction of Stanley Ballinger, has appeared in two major concerts this year.

Highlights of the orchestral season were the annual fall concert, played in December, and the group's spring appearance with the Hays Choral Union. They accompanied the community chorus in a program of contemporary music which was chosen to replace the traditional oratorio.

ALL-GIRL ORCHESTRA

Newly organized this year, the all-girl orchestra has been in popular demand for entertainment on campus and away. Directed by Jim Maxwell, the group made its first appearance as the "Campus Coeds," at the Band day mixer for high school band members. Praise for their popular swing music prompted the scheduling of a two-day spring tour of high schools.

Consisting of versatile musicians, the orchestra membership includes five who double on as many as three different instruments. Eleven of the thirteen girls are freshmen.

NURSE EDUCATION

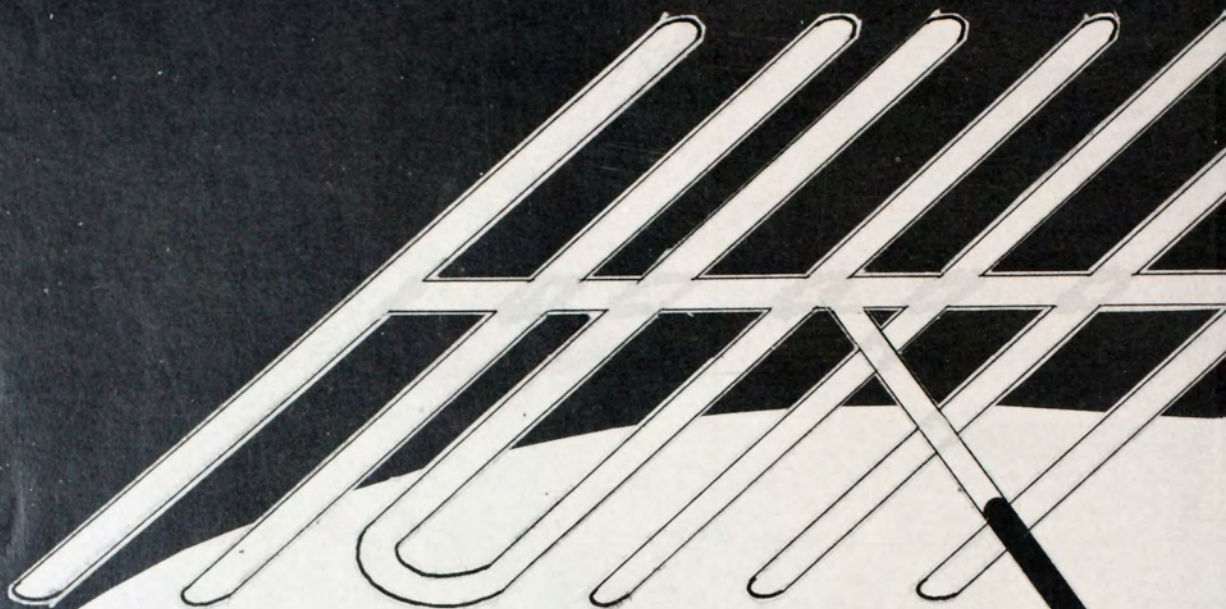

Students in Fort Hays State's Nurse Education program spend approximately two years on campus before leaving for specialized hospital training. This spring the sophomores, above, left campus for specialized courses. They are (back row) Howard Teater, Marjorie Hargitt, Faye Beth Chance, Rachel Brack, Alice Wineland, Ella Wineland, and (front) Sue McCluskey, Eunice Hudson, Bonita Kennard, Delores Bircher, Eleanor Foster, and Twila Coffey.

Right: Miss Leora Stroup, director of Professional Nurse Education, used her doll collection to demonstrate the history of nursing costumes to freshman nursing students, Patsy Webb and Edith Drylie.

During the summer session, the sophomores receive their professional insignia in Fort Hays State's first capping ceremony.

COMMERCIALS

The women's golf class practices teeing off and driving on the practice field. Apparently Carolyn Eppinger hasn't quite mastered the technique.

A freshman Fundamentals of P.E. class gets briefed by instructor Lola Franks before beginning the day's activities.

Leree Howell and Joyce Stewart learn to serve a mean tennis ball by practicing against the walls.

Advanced dancers learn ballerina techniques under the direction of Miss Barbour--
1 The toe dancers stretch their muscles. 2 Eight ballerinas assume their favorite positions. 3 Jenny Bertram, Sonya Simmons, and Norman Hayes stand on tip-toe. 4 Louree Pinkston looks like a professional.

Above, Miss Barbour's beginning dancers (1) learn a folk dance routine and (2) form a chorus line. Below, beginners in tap and swimming line up to learn some rudimentary skills.

The swimming novices choose the shallow end of the pool for a ball game, while the more expert congregate at the deep end.

ART STUDENTS TRY THEIR HANDS...

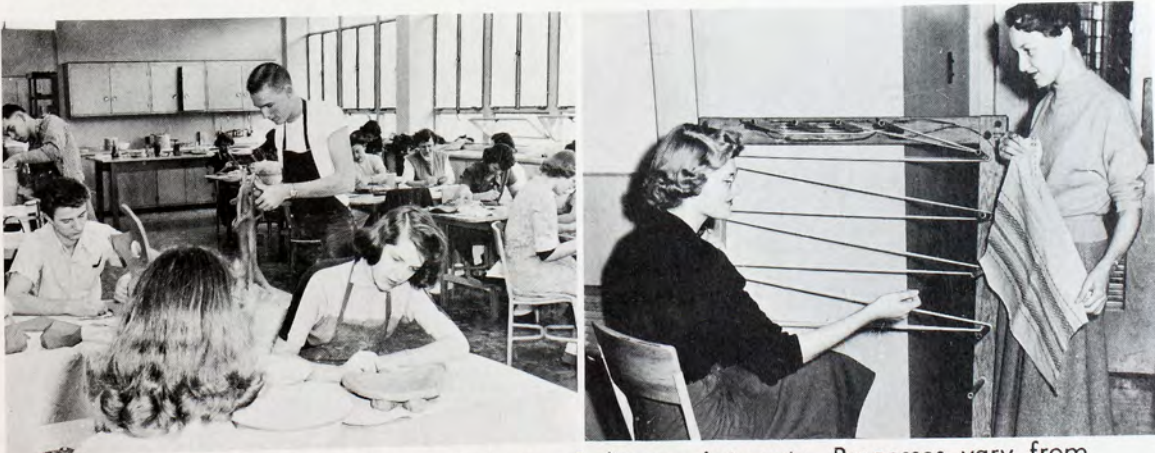

AT COMMERCIAL DESIGN—a group of freshmen paint posters and signs.

AND IN CRAFTS CLASS, they work with metals, plastics, leather, and wire sculpture.

A Few Words To The Students Of Fort Hays State

The reading of a daily newspaper is a broad education in itself. The daily paper affords a background of general information which no one can obtain in any other way.

Few college students need to be told this, it goes without saying, but there may be young men and young women attending Fort Hays State who do not know the Hays Daily News has complete coverage of world-wide, national, state and home news and pictures on every weekday except Saturday, and on Sunday as well. The Sunday Morning News also has local and national features and a comic section as well. The over-all news coverage provided is that of the Associated Press, the world's largest news-gathering agency.
